

EXTRA CASH

If something happens to you or your family, who will take care of your bills?

If you are like most people, you may be worried about protecting yourself and your family from unexpected, real-life events. Things such as losing your job or getting injured that may leave you scrambling to pay your monthly bills. You may wonder, who will take care of your bills if you can't work?

With Extra Cash you can still take care of your bills, even if you can't work.

Extra Cash is a supplemental loss of income product designed to relieve the pressures of your monthly expenses during certain unpredictable events.

Extra Cash helps protect you, your family and your credit rating. You have the peace of mind knowing you will have help paying your monthly bills in the event of involuntary unemployment, disability or death.

Extra Cash can help you by providing the following coverage:

- Involuntary Unemployment Protection - pays you monthly if you become involuntarily unemployed for more than 30 consecutive days.
- Disability Protection - pays you monthly if you become totally disabled for more than 30 consecutive days.
- Accidental Death Protection - pays your beneficiary in the event of your death from a covered accident.
- Family Leave - pays you monthly if you take an employer approved unpaid family leave of absence from work for more than 30 consecutive days. Not available in NY.
